Georgia GCSA Names Scholarship Recipients

Hartwell, GA - The Georgia Golf Course Superintendents Association is proud to announce 10 recipients of the 2022 Legacy Scholarships. Scholarship committee leaders, Brandon Hayes, Scott Slemple, and Tommy Hewitt, named winners of the scholarship that offers educational aid to children and grandchildren of Georgia GCSA members. The awards are funded by the Georgia GCSA and sponsored by Jerry Pate Company.

Hayes, from the Great Waters course at Reynolds Lake Oconee, Slemple, from Piedmont Driving Club, and Hewitt, from The Country Club of the South, led the scholarship interviews with help from Jamie Pate of Jerry Pate Company.

Applications were reviewed independently by the Georgia GCSA scholarship committee. Criteria for selection included academic achievement, extracurricular and community involvement, leadership, and outside employment. Students were required to submit an essay stating a positive change that they have noticed in their Georgia GCSA parent/grandparent since the onset of the pandemic.

To be eligible, one or more of the applicant's parents or grandparents must have been a Georgia GCSA member for five or more consecutive years and must be a current Georgia GCSA member in one of the following classifications: A, B, C, Retired A, Retired B superintendent or AA Life. Students must be enrolled full-time at an accredited institution for the next academic year.

This year's recipients were:

Addison Griffith, daughter of Scott Griffith, University of Georgia Golf Course (TOP SCHOLAR)

Hayes Miller, son of Bryan Miller, Cartersville Country Club

Molly Miller, daughter of Bryan Miller, Cartersville Country Club

Jackson Thebeau, son of Tom Thebeau, The Chimneys Golf Course

Mack Morris, stepson of Tim Busek, St Ives Country Club

Charles Wilder, son of Gary Wilder, ClubCorp

Brian Petrelli, son of Chris Petrelli, Eagle's Landing Country Club

Lucy Hunt, son of Bill Hunt, Athens Country Club

Thomas Scott, son of Andy Scott, Newnan Country Club
